

“Forgive Us as We Forgive Others”

Matt 6:12

Wed Night House of Prayer

Intro/Review

God is our Father and the privilege of prayer is a part of our being adopted into His family.

“...you received God’s Spirit when he adopted you as his own children. Now we call him, “Abba, Father.” (Rom 8:15 NLT)

Wed Night House of Prayer

Mat 6:12

“...forgive us our debts...”

May our moral and spiritual offenses be pardoned and dismissed.

Wed Night House of Prayer

Mat 6:12

“...as we forgive our debtors...”

As we pardon and dismiss the moral & physical offenses committed against us.

Wed Night House of Prayer

Mat 6:14-15

“...if you do not forgive men their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses.”

Forgiving is not an option... it's mandatory

Wed Night House of Prayer

Mat 6:14-15

Forgiving is a 'faith' choice not a 'feeling' choice. I do it because I've been commanded to. That's what makes it a 'faith' choice.

Mat 6:14-15

When you choose to forgive you accept the fact you will live with the consequences of another's actions against you.

Mat 6:14-15

Mal 4:2 But to you who fear My name The Sun of Righteousness shall arise with healing in His wings...
