

Revelation 11:1-2

Measuring the Temple

Call to the Word

Rev 11:1-2

Then I was given a reed like a measuring rod. And the angel stood, saying, "Rise and measure the temple of God, the altar, and those who worship there. But leave out the court which is outside the temple, and do not measure it, for it has been given to the Gentiles. And they will tread the holy city underfoot for forty-two months.

Introduction

Introduction

The Second Coming of Jesus Christ is a cardinal doctrine of the Christian faith. It is not minor, it is not unimportant, it is not secondary or tertiary, it is critical. It is a substantial reality in our faith. In fact, in some ways the Second Coming of Jesus Christ is the most important of events because it's the end of the story, because the Second Coming consummates everything... (MacArthur)

Introduction

“(The Second Coming of Christ) is the only ray of hope that shines as an ever-brightening beam in a darkening world.”

Rev 11:1

We know and believe that all sacrifice for sin was finished at the cross, and any further sacrifice for sin is an offense to God, because it denies the finished work of Jesus on the cross.

I have come in My Father's name, and you do not receive Me; if another comes in his own name, him you will receive. (Joh 5:43)

Rev 11:2

The most dangerous lie Satan whispers in our ear is not “There is no God,” not “there is no hell”; but the most dangerous lie of Satan is “there is no hurry.”

V48: The word "evil" means "something that was once good but has gone bad."

Rev 11:2

Beloved, now we are children of God; and it has not yet been revealed what we shall be, but we know that when He is revealed, we shall be like Him, for we shall see Him as He is. And everyone who has this hope in Him purifies himself, just as He is pure.
