The Johnson Amendment

The Johnson Amendment is a provision in the U.S. tax code, since 1954, that prohibits all 501(c)(3) non-profit organizations from endorsing or opposing political candidates.

My Position

"I won't tell you who to vote for, but I will encourage voting according to your conscience. For those who believe, I see your conscience as guided by God. Therefore, I always suggest voting in alignment with righteousness."

Israel Wants a Change in Government

*“So, you have a monarchy...
if you can keep it.”*

1Sam 8:4-5, 7, 9, 19, 22; 9:17; 12:13-15

We the People.

“So, you have a republic... if you can keep it.”

Ben Franklin

We the People

"We have no government armed with power capable of contending with human passions unbridled by morality and religion. Avarice, ambition, revenge, or gallantry, would break the strongest cords of our Constitution as a whale goes through a net. Our Constitution was made only for a moral and religious People. It is wholly inadequate to the government of any other." - Adams

God's Direction for Blessing

“Turn away from evil and do good. Search for peace, and work to maintain it. The eyes of the LORD watch over those who do right, and his ears are open to their prayers. But the LORD turns his face against those who do evil.” (1Pe 3:11-12)

Righteousness exalts
a nation, But sin is a Reproach to any people.

Proverbs 14:34

God's Direction for Blessing

TO MAINTAIN OUR PRECIOUS
FREEDOM AND LIBERTY WE ARE TO MAKE A STAND FOR RIGHTEOUSNESS.

How to Vote!

A white rectangular sign is taped to a dark red brick wall. The sign features the word "VOTING" in bold, white, sans-serif capital letters on a red rectangular background. To the right of the text is a large red arrow pointing to the right. The sign is held in place by four pieces of grey tape at its corners. The brick wall has a classic running bond pattern, and the lighting creates shadows between the bricks.
