Call to the Word / Isa 46:9-10

Remember the former things of old, for I Am God, and there is no other; I Am God, and there is none like me, declaring the end from the beginning, and from ancient times things that are not yet done, saying, 'my counsel shall stand, and I will do all My pleasure,'

Wednesday Reflections

Jesus is at the doorstep... the rapture is eminent, the time to be sure you're ready is NOW...

The urgency of the hour.

This isn't just a time to plan events—it's a time to prepare hearts because right now, we're not just studying prophecy—we're standing in it.

Ezekiel 38:1–6

I want to make this abundantly clear: I do not believe we are living through the exact fulfillment of Ezekiel 38...not yet. But the stage is set. The alliances are forming. The players are in place.

It's not the final act—but it looks a lot like a final dress rehearsal.

We don't study prophecy just for information—
we study it for preparation.

Eze 37:3, Isa 66:8

Ezk 38:18-23

These moments remind us—God is not absent. He’s writing the story and He’s telling us not so we would fear, but that we would have faith.

Jn 14:29

We can't just drift through this season on autopilot; we can't afford to play it safe, stay comfortable, or hit snooze on what God is doing.

My Heart

We're being pruned and, in the midst of it all, God has been faithful. Grace is at work because after pruning comes fruit.

We will be flexible with our methods, but unshakable in our message.

My Challenge

Pray, believe and press in with me.

“This is the time to wake up, get serious, and walk in the truth... and when the Son of Man returns, may He find faith in us.”
